

GOVERNMENT POLYTECHNIC VALSAD
MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT

SEPTEMBER: 2021

ORIENTATION PROGRAM-2021

The Orientation program was arranged on 28th Sept' 2021 for the fresher of 2021 batch in Under graduate Programme in Mechanical Engineering . Due to the Pandemic situation, the orientation programme was arranged in civil seminar hall as per Covid -19 guideline.

The orientation programme started with prayer. The Principal, Shree C H. Bhatt sir, welcomed the students and wished them a happy stay in the campus for three years and a prosperous career. The Head of the department Shree B N. Patel sir, welcomed the parents, guardians and students of first year and addressed them with a motivational speech. He had given a brief

Profile of the department highlighting its growth in various areas since the inception of the department. He shared her vast experience and advised the students to be dedicated, committed and focused on academics and to showcase their talents in both curricular and extra-curricular activities for having an edge over their peer group for employability and higher education globally.

The faculty team and supporting staff of Mechanical Engineering department were also introduced them self. Orientation committee member gave a brief presentation about institute, department highlighting the infrastructure and laboratories facilities, courses taught, different clubs including common, hostel, and gymkhana amenities.

Mechanical Department

G.P.Valsad