

Government Polytechnic, Valsad

Civil Engineering Department

21 JUNE, 2021

International Yoga Day Celebration

The International Yoga Day, which is celebrated throughout the world on 21st June every year. In the current pandemic time, yoga is playing a very important role for the improvement of immunity of individuals. The program was enthusiastically attended on an online platform by staff members and students of the Civil Engineering Department on occasion of International Yoga Day.

International Yoga Day Celebration (21st June 2021)